

BUTTERFIELD LIFE

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

EVENTS • PROGRAMS • ACTIVITIES

SEPTEMBER VILLAGE EVENTS

For more information about programs and events, please contact Riki Stamps at (479) 695-8003 or Michael Burks at (479) 695-8072.

Monday 2nd – 66th Annual Prairie Grove Clothesline Fair

The annual Clothesline Fair will take place over the Labor Day weekend at Prairie Grove Battlefield State Park, featuring more than 100 booths with handmade crafts. The fair also showcases square dancing, antique farming equipment and live music. Non-profit organizations operate delicious food and drink concessions. Admission is free; concessions are on your own. 9am R $ (W)

Tuesday 3rd – Health and Wellbeing Seminar: The Condition of Happiness

Please welcome Dr. Helen McElree this afternoon for an interesting presentation on the factors that make people happy. “Happiness doesn’t consist in living well and having an excellent quality of life, but rather in knowing how to live.” – Spanish psychiatrist Enrique Rojas. 2pm C (W)

Wednesday 4th – Talk with the Doc: Your Health and Aging

Join Dr. Larry Wright of the UAMS at BTV Clinic for an informal question and answer session on broad-based issues related to health and aging. 2pm PH (W)

Saturday 7th – 2019 Walk To End Alzheimer’s

Join the Butterfield team (aka the Village People) for the annual Walk to End Alzheimer’s at NWACC. Following the walk, we’ll enjoy lunch at Panera Bread. Depart 9am R $ (W)

Monday 9th – Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art: Nature’s Nation

Board the bus today to view Nature’s Nation: American Art and Environment – a major exhibition examining American artists’ impact on environmental understanding and stewardship. With 100 artworks from 70 eminent U.S. collections, it features paintings, photographs and installations by Thomas Moran, Frank Lloyd Wright, Dorothea Lange and many others. Admission is free for museum members, and $12pp for non-members payable in the BTV Program Office. Depart 1pm R $ (W)

Tuesday 10th – Take Five Tuesday

You are invited this afternoon for a relaxing time with friends and neighbors over wine and light refreshments. 4-5:30pm B R

Friday 13th – BTV Museum Travel Series: Rogers Historical Museum

Today’s visit is to the Hailey Ford Building Exhibit Galleries at the expanded and renovated Rogers museum. Five galleries explore the history and development of Northwest Arkansas, with the pioneers who settled here, the beginnings of urbanization, the impact of Beaver Dam, and events of the recent past. Also on view is an exhibit in the Collections Gallery featuring women’s fashion in the Victorian Era. Depart 9am R $ (W)

Saturday 14th – 41st Annual Ozark Quilt Fair at Shiloh Museum

Quilters and quilt lovers are invited to display new and antique quilts for show and for sale at this annual fair. The entry fee is $10 per exhibitor, with cash prize awards of up to $50. Entries must be received by 5pm on Sept. 9. Transportation will be provided to those entering quilts on Sept. 9, and to the fair on Sept. 14. For more info, contact the Shiloh Museum at (479) 750-8165. Depart at 9:45am for both trips R (W)

Saturday 14th – Flamenco Guitarist Virginia Luque
Butterfield is pleased to welcome preeminent guitar virtuoso Virginia Luque to the Performance Hall stage! With past performances at Carnegie Hall, The Metropolitan Opera House, The Frick Collection NYC and other venues, Luque will present an evening of classical and flamenco music in her signature Spanish romantic style. Luque has been awarded First Prize at international music competitions that include the Manuel de Falla Competition for Classical Guitar in Granada, Spain. This evening of extraordinary music is not to be missed! No-cost tickets are available to residents, Carriage Club members and a limited number of guests. Reservations are required; deadline is Wednesday, Sept. 11. For more info, contact Riki Stamps at rstamps@btvillage.org 5:30pm Wine and Cheese Social 7:00pm Concert PH R (W)

Wednesday 18th – You and Your Health: A Heart Out of Rhythm

Atrial fibrillation is an irregular and/or rapid heartbeat that can increase the risk of stroke, heart failure and other complications. Today’s lecture will be presented by internal-medicine resident physicians from UAMS Northwest. 2pm PH (W)

Thursday 19th – Tasting Tour at Markham & Fitz Chocolate

Who can resist the luxurious smell and taste of great chocolate? Today’s tour features a look at bean-to-bar chocolate making at this working factory in Bentonville. We’ll explore the journey from cacao farms in the Dominican Republic, Nicaragua and Haiti, to chocolate bars and confections. Cost is $20pp payable in the BTV Program Office. Depart 1:30pm R $ (W)

Friday 20th – Fulbright Friday: Michael Riha Presents Fall Theatre Preview

Riha will preview the UA Department of Theatre’s exciting fall season of productions, including Marc Camoletti’s French farce Boeing Boeing and Moliere’s classic satire Tartuffe. C (W)

Monday 23rd – The Story of Arkansas Aviator Louise Thaden with Allyn Lord

During the Golden Age of Aviation – the 20 years between World War I and II – the pilots who flew in open-cockpit airplanes and raced to break records were some of the most popular heroes of the day. Not just men, but women as well – women who were daring and adventurous and willing to face tremendous physical hardships. Please join Allyn Lord, director of the Shiloh Museum, for the story of Louise McPhetridge Thaden, a Bentonville aviator who is in the Arkansas Aviation Historical Society’s Hall of Fame. 7pm PH (W)

Tuesday 24th – BTV Foundation Panel Discussion: Charitable Giving Strategies

Gifts to the BTV Foundation are designed to enhance and sustain the quality of life for residents now and for generations to come. You are invited to a panel discussion about the tax benefits of appreciated securities, donor-advised funds and qualified charitable distributions from an IRA. The panel is comprised of Foundation Board members Hugh Kincaid, Lisa Higgins and Julie Olsen (moderator), and David Williams, a member of the BTV Board of Directors. 7pm PH (W)

Wednesday 25th – The Nature Conservancy Presents an Update on the Buffalo River

The Buffalo River Watershed Management Plan is moving forward now that the C&H Hog Farm will be moved away from the Buffalo River. Scott Simon, director of The Nature Conservancy of Arkansas, will share the details of the legal debate between the conservancy and the hog operation and what the future holds for the state’s beloved national river. 3pm PH (W)

Thursday 26th – Autumn Breeze Dance Featuring the Neil Ogle Jazz Band

Autumn has arrived, and the BTV Performance Hall will be abloom with bountiful fall color and décor at this semi-formal event. The evening will feature heavy hors d’oeuvres created by our own Executive Chef Memo Vaca and Chef Henry Leachman and the smooth jazz sounds of the Neil Ogle Jazz Band. Be sure to join us for a celebration of the year’s loveliest of seasons! 6pm PH R $ (W)

Saturday 28th – The Buffalo Gals

Returning to the BTV stage from Nashville, Tenn., this duo brings an outstanding performance with original songs, vocal harmonies and several instrumental pieces. 7pm PH (W)

Monday 30th – Illinois River Watershed Tour and Picnic

Today we visit the Illinois River Watershed Sanctuary in Cave Springs for a picnic lunch followed by a short tour. Staff from the Illinois River Watershed Partnership will discuss the history of the organization and its conservation efforts at the 30-acre sanctuary, which is home to the blind Ozark Cavefish, a threatened species, and the rare Ozark Trillium plant. Bring your own boxed lunch. Drinks will be provided. Depart 11:30am R (W)